

---

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Company Reimbursement

If a company has a reimbursement-to-student policy, the student is responsible for submitting payment of the full balance to Franklin Pierce by the first day of the term. If a company has committed to pay tuition on behalf of the student through a billing agreement but fails to make payment, the student will become responsible for any outstanding charges.

---