

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Global Citizenship Certificate

Assistant Professor: Johnna Pike (Certificate Coordinator)

A certificate is offered in Global Citizenship for traditional students.

The Global Citizenship Certificate aims to give students access to the development of 21st Century collaborative leadership skills by building a dynamic global community that proactively responds to human interdependence, equality, and justice on our ever-changing planet.

The program complements the needs of professionals in fields including: cultural anthropology, education, social services, business management, public administration, public relations, marketing, sports and recreation, criminal justice, journalism, community development, and political science, among others. The Global Citizenship Certificate Program strongly encourages participation of international and internationally minded students.

Requirements

A Franklin Pierce student from outside the United States may use their experience at Franklin Pierce in lieu of the practicum or the internship for completion of requirements for the Global Citizenship Certificate program but may not use it for both.

Required Courses:

AN220 Global Problems 3 credits

GCC490 The Global Citizenship Seminar 1 credit

Two electives 6 credits

Optional Internship

GCC491 Global Citizenship Internship 3 credits

Students may use up to 3 credits from a language-proficiency exam, such as CLEP, to satisfy the ML (Modern Language) or LS (Latinx Studies) course work elective. Of the two electives, only one from the student's major program is allowed, and only one from courses a student may have taken during a study abroad semester is allowed.
