

UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC POLICIES

Courses Counting Toward Degree and Financial Aid

As mandated by the U.S. Department of Education policy, only courses required for a student's degree can be used in determining enrollment status for financial aid purposes.

This means a student could have a full-time course load, but because they are not taking courses that count towards their degree, they could be part-time for financial aid purposes.